From the Rabbi's Desk

Dear Friends,

The Psalmist begins by painting a picture of our ancestors being taunted by our captors and ends by imploring God to take vengeance upon our captors with the same barbarism they inflicted upon us. Is there any among us who cannot relate? Thank God, there is more to the picture here than helplessness and bloodlust.

Between the pain of our torment and the rage that we struggle to manage, is the hope kept alive by our memory of Jerusalem, the mythic dwelling place of the Divine, the heart of Israel. Between the torment and the rage is the place where we strive to let Goodness in so that we stop ourselves from "seizing their babies and dashing them against the rocks." At the end of the Book of Lamentations, the Prophet Jeremiah beseeches God, "Take us back, Adonai, to Yourself, and let us come back; Renew our days as of old!" (Lamentations 5:21). As we struggle to feel God's nearness, we yearn to be embraced once again by God's unending love. Centuries later, Moses Maimonides added, "I believe with perfect faith in the coming of the messiah, and though he may tarry, still I await him every day" (Principle 12 of Rambam's 13 Principles of Faith). As we live with pain, we must also live with hope that healing awaits.

During the month of Elul that begins on September 3rd, we imagine that God, the Sovereign of Sovereigns, is roaming among us, beckoning us to visit

God's home in a month's time. Because we cannot know what the world will look like when we finally gather as one People before God's throne on Rosh Hashana, it is incumbent upon us to use this month to nurture the seeds of hope in our souls. Though we may fear our prayers for the return of the hostages and the end of Israel's war with its enemies will go unanswered, we have it in our power to maintain our humanity, to respond with compassion to the cries of our better angels, and to keep our hope alive. May it be so.

Rabbi Aronson

L'shalom,

A Letter from the President

Dear Congregation,

Personally, I believe it is important for us, as Jews, to demonstrate our pride in our Jewish identity. Beginning on October 2nd of this year, many of us are planning to go to the synagogue to celebrate Rosh Hashanah, the beginning of the ten Days of Awe. Our attendance and observance of the services makes a statement that we value our Jewish heritage and community.

Roye Ginsberg

On August 6th, I went to a rally for Israel in Greenfield, MA. It was a peaceful rally, with only one counter-demonstrator present. Cars drove by and honked their horns in support of our cause. It was meaningful to meet to be amongst other supporters of Israel from this tri-state region (MA, VT, and NH). There are also plans for all the synagogues in New Hampshire to commemorate in a hybrid service the one year anniversary of the hostages being taken and the massacre of October 7, 2023. We continue to have signs in front of the synagogue reminding all of the Keene community about the hostage situation.

Some of the above events (attendance at services and rallies) may make us feel anxious. I went to the Greenfield rally fully prepared to encounter counter-demonstrators calling us "occupiers" and other anti-semitic slurs. It is possible that the High Holidays, with so many Jews attending services, could provoke anti-semitic behavior such as vandalism – or worse. It is also possible the hostage signs in front of the synagogue could lead to hostile reactions.

But, my recommendation is to be proud of being Jewish and speak up if the occasion arises. Don't be afraid of advocating for Israel and against anti-semitism. Don't be afraid to speak out for other marginalized communities as well.

I look forward to seeing all of you during the High Holidays. Our community is strong.

All good wishes for a Shana Tova,

Most sincerely yours,
Roye Ginsberg

CAA's Yizkor Book of Remembrance

Soon, the CAA office will mail out letters to congregation members asking for any updated yahrzeit information there may be for our Yizkor Book of Remembrance. If you are a member, please keep an eye out for the letter and send in the enclosed form and envelope.

You don't have to wait... you may email Daniella at office@keenesynagogue.org to let us know of any changes or additions that need to be made to the list of names of loved ones that you would like to have remembered in the book.

Amazing Race

Once again, Congregation Ahavas Achim would like to run two of the Challenges as part of 100 Night's Amazing Race fundraiser on September 14 to help with homelessness. We need around a dozen volunteers for a couple of hours on the afternoon of September 14. Last year, our Challenges involved (1) contestants doing a dance routine and (2) contestants knocking down empty beer cans with rubber bands. It is fun !!

If you can help, please contact David Kochman at (603) 903-0357 or kochman10@yahoo.com

Hagbah and Gelilah Training
Sunday, September 8 at 10:30am

Erev Rosh HaShanah is just weeks away on September 15th! In preparation for the High Holidays and to offer an opportunity to participate in these honors, come learn how to safely lift the Torah (Hagbah) during Torah services and wrap the Torah with the belt and mantel (Gelilah).

If you have any questions, contact Daniella at office@keenesynagogue.org.

CAA's Religious School Begins
Sunday, Sept. 8 at 9:30am

It's here! The day all our students have been anticipating- the return to Religious School after summer vacation. Hooray! We look forward to gathering in person to continue learning together!

Parents: Watch your email for registration forms next week. Parents may also contact Daniella about registering their children at office@keenesynagogue.org or (603) 352-6747.

Henry Orion McDonald Bar Mitzvah

My name is Henry Orion McDonald and on July 24th, I turned 13 years old! I live in Jaffrey, New Hampshire with my mom, my sister Josie (6), and my awesome dog Buddha. Many of you have seen me participating more in Shabbat services in recent months practicing leading prayers and learning more about Torah. I've been taking time each week to prepare for my Bar Mitzvah and becoming a more active member of our congregation. While the work has been challenging and services quite long, I have enjoyed attending and appreciate the encouragement from Lainee, Rabbi Dan, Roye and our whole CAA community.

More About me...

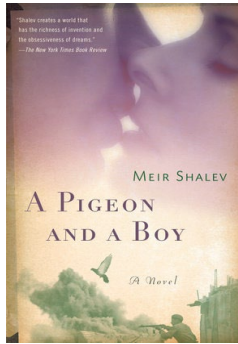

Hobbies: Video Games, Acting/Performing, Flower sticks

Interests: Superheroes, Gaming, TTRPG's, Filmmaking

I'm inviting everyone to join me for Shabbat Services and a special oneg on Friday, October 25th, and for my Bar Mitzvah service the following morning Saturday, October 26th when I will be called to the Torah. I look forward to seeing you all there!

Join the CAA Book Discussion

The CAA Book Club will next meet on Sunday, September 8th, to discuss A Pigeon and a Boy, a beloved book by the renowned Israeli author Meir Shalev. To quote Amazon, it is a “mesmerizing novel of two love stories, separated by half a century but connected by one enchanting act of devotion . . . During the 1948 War of Independence—a time when pigeons are still used to deliver battle-field messages—a gifted young pigeon handler is mortally wounded. In the moments before his death, he dispatches one last pigeon. The bird is carrying his extraordinary gift to the girl he has loved since adolescence. Intertwined with this story is the contemporary tale of Yair Mendelsohn, who has his own legacy from the 1948 war. Yair is a tour guide specializing in bird-watching trips who, in middle age, falls in love again with a childhood girlfriend. His growing passion for her, along with a gift from his mother on her deathbed, becomes the key to a life he thought no longer possible.”

We meet at the synagogue at 10:15am for coffee, etc. and begin our discussion at 10:30. Hope to see

Selichot Services at CAA
Saturday, September 28th at 7:30 pm

Please join Rabbi Dan and Lainee Ginsberg on Saturday, September 28th at 7:30pm at CAA or on Zoom for a short but very moving service to prepare us all for the upcoming High Holy Days. Whether in person or online, we will gather once again to usher in the Days of Awe.

The Selichot service, which is conducted on the Saturday night that falls a full week before Rosh Hashanah, includes liturgical poems and meditations highlighting the themes of repentance and renewal that we associate with Days of Awe. The word "selichot" itself means forgiveness and broadly refers to the penitential prayers that we find in our mahzor, the High Holiday prayerbook. The familiar, stirring melodies and heartfelt reflections of the service will inspire each of us to seek forgiveness from God, our loved ones and ourselves so that we can each begin 5784 with a clean slate, free of regret and remorse.

The service will be most impactful for those who experience it in person in our sanctuary. It will also be online for those who wish to attend from home.

Friday Night Service in the Sukkah with
Rabbi Dan and Lainee

Friday, October 18th at 7:00pm

Join us as we celebrate Shabbat in our beautiful sukkah with a musical erev Shabbat service. We'll feel the warmth of community as we gather together!

An oneg in the sukkah will follow services.

Make sure to dress for the weather! The service will be indoors in case of bad weather.

Sukkot and Shabbat Morning Festival Service
Thursday, October 24th at 9:30am

We invite you to join us in the sanctuary for a festival service, including special songs and Torah readings.

Please help make a minyan for those reciting Kaddish.

CAA Member's Robin & Craig Sylvern Germany/Poland trip 2024

The path many Jewish women took on Viscardigasse in Munich to avoid having to salute the Nazi guards at Military Commanders' Hall

The group standing in front of The Old Synagogue in Krakow

Broken headstones used to build a memorial in Krakow's New Jewish Cemetery

From Craig and Robin's Germany/Poland trip

The 12-day trip, sponsored by the Cohen Center for Holocaust and Genocide Studies, included stops in Munich, Nuremberg, Berlin, Warsaw, and Krakow. In each city we visited sites that documented the history of the Jewish people in the region and the atrocities committed by the Nazi regime. In Munich and Krakow, we visited Dachau and Auschwitz, two of the hundreds of concentration camps built by the Nazis. The visits were tough but important. We also saw several synagogues that survived and are still in use today. There were also many lighter moments walking around each city, visiting beer gardens, and discovering new gelato flavors. Our group was filled with some wonderful people who made the trip that much more enjoyable. Many thanks to Kate and Dana from the Cohen Center and Evan from Students Love Travel.

Our next dates at TCK are Thursday, Sept. 19, Thursday, Oct. 17, and Thursday, Oct. 31.

The Kitchen has re-opened the facility, so guests can now dine on-site. As a result, as time goes by, we will need more volunteers to serve the meals. Please contact Gary Shapiro or Malcolm Katz if you are interested in volunteering with this great group of CAA congregants.

Also note CAA also works at TCK on Wednesday mornings (Malcolm and I), and Thursdays (Selena) packaging up food for the pantry program.

No further volunteers are needed for those gigs at this point. Sandy Kochman also does some pantry work on Wednesdays. Incredible amounts of food are distributed to our fellow citizens who need it. Also, thanks to Elaine Bieber, who is a volunteer chef at TCK.
